

Remembrance Day at Perryfields Infant School

On Tuesday 11th November the staff and children had a minutes silence to remember our fallen heroes who risked their lives to save us.

Children throughout the school had the opportunity to learn, think, and write about the importance and meaning of this day.

