

The image shows a worksheet titled "Wednesday's Literacy – Using bullet points". The title is underlined and centered at the top. Below the title are three paragraphs of instructions:

Can you write 5 informative sentences using bullet points that you have learnt from watching the video today?

Remember to put your bullet point at the start of each sentence and use a new bullet point for each fact. Bullet points always start on a new line!

Don't forget to use a capital letter and a full stop or exclamation mark at the end of each of your sentences.

The bottom half of the page contains ten horizontal blue lines for writing. The entire worksheet is framed by a decorative border of yellow pencils pointing towards the center.

The image shows a worksheet titled "Wednesday's Literacy – Using bullet points". The title is underlined and centered at the top. Below the title are three paragraphs of instructions:

Can you write 5 informative sentences using bullet points that you have learnt from watching the video today?

Remember to put your bullet point at the start of each sentence and use a new bullet point for each fact. Bullet points always start on a new line!

Don't forget to use a capital letter and a full stop or exclamation mark at the end of each of your sentences.

The bottom half of the page contains ten horizontal blue lines for writing. The entire worksheet is framed by a decorative border of yellow pencils pointing inwards.

[illegible]

The image shows a worksheet titled "Wednesday's Literacy – Using bullet points". The title is underlined and centered at the top. Below the title are three paragraphs of instructions:

Can you write 5 informative sentences using bullet points that you have learnt from watching the video today?

Remember to put your bullet point at the start of each sentence and use a new bullet point for each fact. Bullet points always start on a new line!

Don't forget to use a capital letter and a full stop or exclamation mark at the end of each of your sentences.

The bottom half of the page contains ten horizontal blue lines for writing. The entire worksheet is framed by a decorative border of yellow pencils pointing towards the center.

The image shows a worksheet titled "Wednesday's Literacy – Using bullet points". The title is underlined and centered at the top. Below the title are three paragraphs of instructions:

Can you write 5 informative sentences using bullet points that you have learnt from watching the video today?

Remember to put your bullet point at the start of each sentence and use a new bullet point for each fact. Bullet points always start on a new line!

Don't forget to use a capital letter and a full stop or exclamation mark at the end of each of your sentences.

The bottom half of the page contains ten horizontal blue lines for writing. The entire worksheet is framed by a decorative border of yellow pencils pointing inwards.