

Sikh Symbols

Match the pictures of the symbols to the correct names and explanations.

	1. 	A type of breeches (shorts) worn by Sikhs. These were first worn by Sikh warriors hundreds of years ago.
	2. 	This bracelet has no beginning and no end – just like God, and is a symbol of being close to God.
	3. 	This symbol represents the fight against evil. It also represents the defending the weak or people around the world.
	4. 	This symbolises keeping the body clean, neat and tidy to please God.
	5. 	Sikhs do not cut their hair as it is a symbol of purity and holiness.

Kirpan

Kesh

Kanga

Kara

Kachera